Monica G. Cordero

Monica G. Cordero is the Assistant Registrar of Curriculum Support in the Registrar’s Office. She began her career at SMU as a Microfilm Manager and was promoted to Information System Specialist where she worked on queries and statistical reports for the university. She then moved to Business Systems Analyst in Academic Advisement, later becoming the lead for Academic Advisement. In 2007, she was promoted to Manager of Academic Curriculum Support. In 2015, she was promoted to her current position as the Assistant Registrar for Curriculum Support. Monica began as an SMU student with a work-study program in the Registrar’s Office. She graduated in 1996 with a Bachelor’s Degree in Management Science. Monica grew up in Dallas and graduated North Dallas High School as valedictorian. She taught English to adults with the DISD and the Big Thoughts program and continues to do so through volunteer work with her church. She enjoys spending time with her family and volunteering with her church.

Duane Harbin

Duane Harbin is the Assistant Dean for Technology, Planning, and Compliance at Perkins School of Theology. He was the Associate Director of Bridwell Library from 1995–2001, the Assistant Dean for Instructional Technology and Institutional Research at Perkins from 2001–2015 and has been in his current role since 2016. Before joining SMU, Duane was the Information Services Librarian for Yale Divinity School. He grew up in Sao Paulo, Brazil, Western Springs, Illinois, and Englewood, Colorado where he attended Cherry Creek High School. In 1977 he graduated from Northwestern University with a Bachelor’s Degree in Linguistics, in 1981 from Yale University Divinity School with a Master’s Degree in Divinity, and in 1989 from Southern Connecticut State University with a Master’s Degree in Library Science. He was awarded the SMU Faculty Senate Award for Outstanding Service for 2004–2005 and served on the American Theological Library Association Board of Directors from 2004–2010, Vice President 2005, and President 2006. Duane enjoys classic American cars (especially Ford Thunderbirds) and Pembroke Welsh Corgis.
Abby Kinney

Abby Kinney is the IT Category Manager in Business and Finance, Purchasing. She began working with SMU in 1995 as a Desktop Support Consultant with Project Pegasus, which was an effort to equip all faculty and staff with desktop computers. She became a Manager of ITS User Services in 2000 and then Director of Support Services in 2002. In 2015, Abby moved to Purchasing where she continues to work presently. Before SMU, Abby worked with a regional investment securities firm as an analyst, then transitioned to helping with their computers. She moved on to manage a team that supported all technology for their main office and forty-two branch offices. Abby grew up in Dallas and graduated from Lake Highlands High School. She graduated from SMU in 1986 with a Bachelor of Business Administration and from the University of Texas at Dallas in 1996 with a Master of Science in Management and Administrative Sciences. She was a Member of the Staff Association Executive Board from 2008–2010 and was one of the founding members of the Staff Association Mustang Partners. In her free time, she enjoys needlework, genealogy, music, and spending time with her fur-babies, Henry, Sis, Oliver, Cooper, Lou-Lou, and Peggy.

Julie Maynard

Julie is the Executive Assistant for the Provost and the Faculty Senate. She was hired as a part-time staff member by Marsh Terry for his Senate term from 1993–1994 and became a full-time staff member in 1995. She has since had a total of twenty-six bosses! Before SMU, she was a stay-at-home mom to her daughter and son, and ran her own business, “Out of the Attic Real Estate Sales”, which she has continued through the years. Julie grew up in Dallas. She attended J.F. Kimball High School and Abilene Christian University where she majored in Drama and minored in History. Julie took Charlie Smith’s Creative Writing Course at SMU at Taos in 1996. She received the Outstanding Staff Award in 2007. She enjoys time with her spouse Steve Farr and children Adrienne Maynard Morton and Cameron Davis Maynard. She is the proud grandmother of eighteen-month-old James Ford Morton. In her spare time, Julie enjoys ethnic antiquities, tribal textiles, and jewelry. She attends antique shows across the country and has completed estate sales as far away as Long Beach, New Jersey.
Beth Minton

Beth Minton is the Department Coordinator and Assistant to the Chair in the Department of Computer Science. Beth began her career at SMU as the Administrative Assistant in the Computer Science and Engineering Department, School of Engineering and Applied Science (SEAS). Before joining SMU, Beth worked as a temp in a bank. She grew up in South Texas and attended Gonzales High School, later graduating with a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree from SMU in 1971. She has received the Engineering Staff Favorite Award. She always knew she would attend SMU as a student and has grown to love the school even more since becoming a staff member. Beth is married to Gary Minton and has two children, Lowry Minton Manders and Jake Minton. In her spare time, she enjoys knitting, cooking, and hosting parties with her husband.

Marc Peterson

Marc Peterson is the Director of Financial Aid for the Financial Aid Department. He began his career at SMU in the Athletic Department as the Associate Athletic Director of External Affairs. In 1999, he moved to the newly formed Division of Enrollment Services as the Director of Planning. In 2004, he was promoted to serve in his current role as the Director of Financial Aid. In 2010, he received an Honorary Lettermen’s Award from the SMU Letterman's Association. Before joining SMU, Marc co-owned a computer equipment company in Dallas. Marc’s father was a career Army Officer which allowed him to grow up and experience many places around the globe including Germany, France, Northern Virginia, New Jersey, and Galesburg, IL where he attended high school. Marc attended SMU where he received a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. He then completed the Air Force ROTC program at SMU and was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant. He went on to attended Penn State University to receive a Master of Science in Mineral Economics. He is married to Jan Peterson and has one child named Nancy, both SMU alumnae and former staff members at SMU. Marc's family enjoys traveling and SMU college sports.
Maria C. Richards

Maria C. Richards is the Geothermal Laboratory Coordinator for the Huffington Department of Earth Sciences. Maria began her career at SMU after a chance meeting at a basketball game where she met Dr. Dave Blackwell. He hired Maria and lead her as she grew from a part-time data entry and mapping position to a full-time staff position. Through opportunities at SMU, Maria met many in the international geothermal industry. Her connections allowed her to expand the Geothermal Lab research grants, add conferences, provide outreach, build a national geothermal data system, travel to geothermal sites around the world, and eventually become the President of the Geothermal Resources Council. Maria received the SMU Leadership in Sustainability Award and is the President of For the Love of the Lake. She grew up in southern Michigan and attended Adrian High School. She later attended Michigan State University, where she obtained a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Geography and the University of Tennessee where she received a Master of Science in Physical Geography. Maria is married to Ian Richards and enjoys bike riding.

Katy R. Scott

Katy Scott is the Director of Project Management in Marketing and Communications for Development and External Affairs. Katy began her career at SMU in 1994 as a temporary staff member, working as the Information Systems Secretary in the Department of News and Information. She has since that time worked in a variety of roles within the Office of Public Affairs, which is now called Marketing and Communications. Before her current role, she held the titles of Web Production Designer, E-Marketing Designer, Associate Director of E-Marketing, and Associate Director of Project Management. Before SMU, Katy was a recent college graduate and a manager of an ice cream store. She grew up in Plano and attended Plano East Senior High School. Katy received a Bachelor of Art in Psychology and Fine Art from Austin College and a Certificate in Project Management from SMU. She is married to Doc Scott and has an eleven-year-old named Jamieson. Loretta O’Reilly Hawkins Award

The Loretta O’Reilly Hawkins Award was established to recognize and reward employees who represent the qualities and spirit of Loretta O’Reilly Hawkins, her love of SMU, her commitment to the community, and her high standards for work and life. Loretta O’Reilly Hawkins was a member of the university staff for 37 years, from 1924 to 1961, during which time she held various roles, including assistant to President C.C. Selecman and President Umphrey Lee. Her retirement in 1961 was announced in a lead editorial in the Dallas Morning News entitled “Loretta’s Leaving.”

Mrs. Hawkins was a single parent who was devoted to both SMU and her family, working tirelessly through the depression (and a 66% pay cut for staff employees) to better the university, while also taking on part-time and evening work to support her family. She had an excellent reputation in the community and high standards of accomplishment in work, family, and the art of living. This award was endowed by Mr. Dallas E. Hawkins II, to honor his mother and her life as well as to benefit the university to which she was so dedicated.
