The John G. Tower Center Undergraduate Journal

Submission Guide

1. Articles and policy papers submitted to dialogue should be original research and should not be under consideration by any other journal at the same time.
2. Submissions should not be longer than 30 pages, including text, all tables and figures, endnotes, and appendices. This page size guideline is based on the U.S. standard 8.5 x 11 inch paper. All materials should be double-spaced, with margins of one inch. The font should be in 12 point type, Times New Roman for all parts of the paper.
3. Use endnotes, not footnotes. The endnotes will take the place of the works cited and references. For specific formatting style of citations in the endnotes, please consult the Chicago-Style Citation Quick Guide online (http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools\_citationguide.html). In the endnotes, first references to material should give a full bibliographic citation; further references should be abbreviated to author and short title. All endnotes should follow the period at the end of a sentence; none should be within a sentence, preceding a comma, et cetera.
4. All pages should be numbered in one sequence, not including the cover page.
5. For Policy Paper submissions, see the Boston University International Relations website regarding Policy Paper Guidelines (<http://www.bu.edu/ir/graduate/current/papers/policy/>). Implementation and Appendices sections are optional. Please follow all previous guidelines.
6. To allow for the anonymous review of submissions, the author's name should appear only on the cover page, which should also contain the full title of the submission, relevant contact information, year of graduation, and major(s) and minor(s). Authors should avoid identifying themselves in the paper itself (title page, header, notes).
7. Authors of articles to be considered for publication should submit materials as an e-mail attachment to TCSF@smu.edu. All emails must have the word JOURNAL as the first word of the subject.
