Subject: Participation in the democratic process

MSNBC will host a town hall meeting moderated by Chris Matthews at UWGB on Wednesday. The event will be taped in Fort Howard Hall at the Weidner Center and broadcast at 7 pm Wednesday. At this point presidential candidate Donald Trump is the only confirmed participant, although other candidates were invited to participate.

As a public university, we welcome the opportunity to provide space for public discourse and work to balance those requests while maintaining security and the continuity of our academic programs. We will continue to follow that decision-making process as all candidates approach us with event opportunities.

We will do our best to minimize inconvenience and disruption to the academic programs.

I hope you agree this is an excellent opportunity for UWGB to participate in the democratic process.
