Subject: UW-Green Bay chancellor finalists named

I am excited to share with you that University of Wisconsin System President Ray Cross will announce today the four finalists for the position of chancellor at the University of Wisconsin–Green Bay.

A 13-member Search and Screen Committee, led by Regent Robert Atwell and myself, recommended the list of finalists. The Special Regent Committee determined that the following individuals will continue in the selection process.

The finalists, listed in alphabetical order, are:

- Michael Alexander \(CV pdf\)
Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, UW-Green Bay
Green Bay, WI
- Mark L. Biermann \(CV pdf\)
Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs, Valparaiso University
Valparaiso, IN
- Teresa M. Flannery \(CV pdf\)
Policy Fellow, Center for University Excellence, American University
Washington, D.C.
- Lori Vermeulen \(CV pdf\)
Former Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Stockton University
Galloway, NJ

Beginning Tuesday, February 25, the four candidates will participate in separate public forums, offering opportunities for students, faculty, staff, and community members to interact directly with them. See the complete schedule of open forums for details.

On behalf of the entire Search and Screen Committee, I highly encourage you to participate in this important step in the selection process for the University's seventh Chancellor, including the opportunity to offer feedback on each candidate.

Following campus interviews and public forums, President Cross and the Special Regent Committee will interview finalists March 26. They will recommend one candidate to the full Board of Regents, which must approve the recommended candidate. The committee is still on schedule to submit a recommendation for approval at the April Board of Regents meetings.
