Eligibility Requirements for the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame

Dues-paying members of the “B” Association are eligible to nominate former Baylor athletes to the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame. Before making a nomination, please review the following criterion to be sure the nominee is qualified. The person nominated should have met one or more of the achievement standards below. Thank you for supporting the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame.

Student Athletes

10 years since graduation of his/her class as determined by date of matriculation

- All American Recognition
- All Region Selection
- All Conference
- Conference Specialty Award
- Conference Player of the Year
- Conference Record Holder
- National Player of the Year or National Award Winner (i.e. Ray Guy Award or Doak Walker Award)
- National Champion in an individual sport
- NCAA Statistical Leader
- Olympic qualifier
- American Record Holder or U.S. Olympic Team Member
- World Record Holder
- Baylor All-time Career Leader in Major Statistical Category
- Lettered in at least Three Different Varsity Sports
- Significant post-Baylor accomplishments may be considered; however, the focus should remain on athletic accomplishments as a Baylor student athlete.

The Athletic Director may also add other athletes deemed worthy of consideration.

Coaches, Administrators, and Professional Staff Members

- Tenure of at least five (5) years in the athletic department
- Outstanding career as a coach, administrator, or professional staff member that has brought exceptional distinction to the department and University
- No one currently employed is eligible to be inducted as a coach or administrator, except individuals who have reached 60 years of age and have tenure of at least five (5) years.
- The Athletic Director may also add other coaches/administrators deemed worthy of consideration.

2022 Baylor Hall of Fame Nominees

Once nominated, each candidate will remain in consideration for five (5) years before being rotated off the list. The year at the top of each column is the fifth year that this nominee has been considered for the Hall. That name will be removed after the year listed.
