Outstanding Graduate Student Paper Awards

Call for Submissions

Baylor's 19th C. Research Seminar (19CRS) is soliciting entries for two awards to be granted to outstanding graduate-student papers in nineteenth-century studies. Papers should represent students' best academic work.

Students whose papers are chosen for the award will be recognized at the final spring-semester meeting of the 19CRS on Friday, May 9. The students will be invited to read their papers to the 19CRS and field questions after their presentations.

Students should submit papers that can be read aloud within 20 minutes, which means they should be 8-10 double-spaced pages.

Entries are due Friday, April 4, and should be emailed to Dr. Joshua King (Joshua_King@baylor.edu) and Jeremy Land (Jeremy_Land@baylor.edu).

All entries will be peer reviewed by a panel of Baylor scholars.

Please accompany submitted papers with the following:

1. One-page CV.
2. Abstract (250 words or less) clearly explaining the nature and significance of the paper's argument.
3. Brief email (a few sentences) of support from a Baylor professor recommending the paper and the student. The email should be sent to the same addresses listed above.

Applicants will be notified of the decision by Friday, April 25.
