THE NASHVILLE CHILDREN'S CHOIR PRESENTS ITS 30TH ANNIVERSARY CONCERT

Enriching the lives of Children through quality choral music

Nashville, Tennessee. (March 13, 2019) The Nashville Children's Choir will present their 30th Anniversary Concert Celebration on Saturday, May 11, 3:30 p.m. at First Baptist Church, Nashville (108 7th Avenue South, Nashville, Tennessee).

The concert will feature four levels of choirs (ages 8-18) singing a varied repertoire of music, including classical, folk, popular, and world music, and will climax with the world premiere of a work commissioned to celebrate Dr. Bridges and her 29 years of leadership. The final selections of the concert will showcase all choirs plus an alumni choir joining their voices to mark the joy of this day. The stage will be filled with 300 singers!

The concert will be emceed by NewsChannel 5 Nashville's "Talk of the Town" host, Meryll Rose.

This event is free and open to the public.
