TED Talks Summary Assignment

Instructions for Submission: Post in OAKS Discussion Area, under Topic labeled TED Talks Summaries.

What Is TED Talks?
TED is an acronym for Technology, Entertainment, and Design. It began in 1984 as a nonprofit devoted to Ideas Worth Spreading.

Assignment:
Choose one of the talks available at www.ted.com, answer the questions listed below and write a summary. You should pick a talk that discusses an idea, topic or experience you find highly interesting as you will be completing later assignments based on this talk.

MLA Source Citation:
(Follow this Example taken from http://libguides.greenriver.edu)

Lectures, speeches, addresses, readings, and other web video presentations:
Speaker (last name, first name). “Title of presentation.” Sponsoring organization, date of presentation. Web. Date of access (day month year).

Summary of the Talk.
In your summary, when you quote or paraphrase the presenter in your summary, you must provide a proper in-text citation using MLA style, as seen in the example below. If you use a direct quotation, make sure to include quotation marks. If you use a longer quote, please use block quotes. For examples, visit http://bcs.bedfordstmartins.com/resdoc5e/RES5e_ch08_s1-0001.html

Example 1: During the presentation, Jane Yates stated that invention and pre-writing are areas of rhetoric that need more attention.

Example 2: Companies can monitor employees’ every keystroke without legal penalty, but they may have to combat low morale as a result (Lane).
