CofC Film Club Screenwriting Competition
Deadlines and Rules
Fall 2019

The winning script will be produced during Spring 2020 and will be screened at the Annual Student Film Festival. Runner Up Script award winners will still have the opportunity to have their script produced during the Spring semester subject to time constraints.

The winning screenwriter will work with the CofC Film Club in the production of their script as well as any re-writes that may occur during filming.

1. This is a free competition for students of the College of Charleston
2. Competition will begin on September 2nd and end on October 25th at midnight
3. Three winners will be announced and receive awards at the final club meeting on November 20th
4. Scripts must be 1 to 8 pages in length and follow the criteria below:
   a. Must be presented in Screenwriting format
   b. Scripts can be of any genre (Comedy, Horror, Drama, Thriller, Romance etc.)
   c. Must keep the Charleston area in mind
   d. Refrain from any stories that would involve CGI unless the screenwriter has the means or ability to create these kinds of visual effects
   e. Refrain from any stories with unattainable locations (i.e. A script could not take place at a Mall or another commercially owned building)
   f. Refrain from any stories with a high budget for production (i.e. Any Michael Bay Film)
   g. Refrain from any stories with gratuitous violence, racism, or acts of misogyny
5. Screenwriters can submit no more than two scripts to the competition
6. Past screenwriters can submit to the competition

If you are concerned that your script does not meet the above requirements, or if you have any additional questions or concerns, email collegeofcharlestonfilmclub@gmail.com.
