

DEAR LCWA...

Vol. 2 | Issue 4 | April 2019

A Bridge

---

My role of instructional technologist bridges pedagogical divides through trainings, consultations, podcasts, and blogposts so that faculty can learn and share new ideas with each other. Please let me know how I can help you.

~ Mike

Inside This Issue

---

- Episode 4 – Cultivating Soft Skills with Juliette Bourdier
- TLTCon – Save the Date!
- For Lovers of Film Noir (Win a $5 gift card!)

Episode 4 – Cultivating Soft Skills with an Undergraduate Academic Journal in French

Click on the above link to catch the conversation I had with Juliette Bourdier of French, Francophone, and Italian Studies about the undergraduate academic journal she created.

The end of all knowledge should be service to others.

César Chávez (1927-1993)

Care for self → Care for others

When we consider the “break” within the self-care tradition, we can see that a well-chosen break has the ability to benefit our families because we are effectively caring for ourselves. It’s imperative that we find meaningful “breaks” at work so that we can meaningfully participate at home. Click here to continue reading.

TLT CONFERENCE 2019

COLLEGE of CHARLESTON
TEACHING AND LEARNING TEAM

For Educators, Instructional Technologists & Designers
in Higher Education

Keynote: Dr. Henry Roediger

Best Practices • Innovative Teaching • Lessons Learned • Pedagogy

MAY 16-17th

College of Charleston

tlt.cofc.edu/tltcon

#TLTCON19

I WAS BORN WHEN YOU KISSED ME. I DIED WHEN YOU LEFT ME. I LIVED A FEW WEEKS WHILE YOU LOVED ME.

For Lovers
of Film Noir: A favorite starring Grahame and Bogart with excerpts appearing in Michael Jackson's
"Smooth Criminal" (This Is It version).