

LITE Workshops@Addlestone

Literacy, Information, Technology, and Education

Not a Techie? Don't Worry! Our Classes are for Everyone!

For more information visit blogs.cofc.edu/LITE

Special LITE Guest Star Bobby Hollandsworth / Business Librarian, Clemson University Libraries

Presents:

What You Need to Know about Plagiarism

This is a virtual session interactively-cast from Clemson University. Participants will use iClickers for in-presentation survey and quiz responding.

Thursday, April 8
Addlestone 120
3 – 4:30pm

REGISTER TODAY for Thursday's session at 3pm!
Want to know what's next? Visit our Spring 2010 Schedule!
blogs.cofc.edu/LITE

What is plagiarism anyway? Why is it important? How do you avoid it? Why would you want to? What will happen if you don't? Plagiarism comes in many forms and is often done inadvertently due to inexperience and not knowing what plagiarism actually is. This virtual session will answer these questions and teach practical ways to identify and avoid plagiarism. Participants using iClickers will learn what plagiarism actually is and how to avoid it with paraphrasing, summarizing, direct quotations and citations.

A bit about Bobby for your files:

Bobby Hollandsworth is a Business Reference Librarian at RM Cooper Library on the campus of Clemson University, where he serves as the library liaison to the departments of Economics, Finance, Marketing, and Agricultural and Applied Economics. He has over ten years of experience as a business reference librarian. He has worked in public and academic libraries along with being a quality assurance analyst and database designer at Ovid Technologies. He has an undergraduate degree in Communications from Appalachian State University, Master's in Library and Information Science from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and a Master's of Professional Communication from Westminster College.

Sponsored by:

College of Charleston Libraries
Friends of the Library
Center for Student Learning
Language Resource Center

"Congratulations! It was not boring; there was no lingo language."

"Keep scheduling the classes."