Social Media at the College of Charleston

The Social Media Team, housed in the Division of Marketing and Communications, serves as a resource for members of the College community interested in successfully utilizing social media accounts. By submitting an application for recognition, your accounts are eligible for posting on the College’s social media webpage as an officially recognized account. Please see the guidelines, best practices and tips for effective profile images. For more information, contact the Social Media Team.

URL: http://marketing.cofc.edu/divisionoffices/e-marketing/social-media/index.php

OFFICIAL Social Media Sites at the College of Charleston

Stay connected with the College of Charleston

Be informed and remain connected with the College, individual departments or centers. Stay abreast of news, research, and promotions here on campus. Click on the bullet below the social network of your choice to follow, friend, or become a fan.

URL: http://www.cofc.edu/about/socialmedia/index.php