South Carolina Medievalists Meeting
Saturday 10 February 2018

SC GOVERNOR’S SCHOOL
FOR SCIENCE AND MATHEMATICS
401 Railroad Avenue, Hartsville SC 29550

Organized by María J. García Otero (otero@gssm.k12.sc.us)

PROGRAM

9:30-10:00
Registration

10:00-10:30
Scott Gwara. Professor of English, University of South Carolina.
The First Greek Manuscripts in North America.

10:30-11:00
Emily Beck. Associate Professor of Spanish, College of Charleston.
To Serve is Divine? When Mythological Journeys and How-to Manuals Meet.

11:00-11:30
Katherine Hager. Graduate Student of History, Clemson University.
Muliebrem Animum Supergressa: Saxo Grammaticus’ Portrayal of Alvild the Virtuous Pirate Maiden in Spirituality and Crusading Ideology.

11:30-12:00
António de Ridder-Vignone. French Instructor. SCGSSM.
Petrarch, Chaucer, and Marguerite de Navarre: Three Readers’ Responses to Decameron 100, the Tale of Griselda.

12:00-1:00
Lunch

1:00-1:30
Workshop: Scriptorium

1:30-2:00
Carl Michael Garris. Graduate student of Medieval History, Columbia University.
An Exploration and Analysis of ‘Azur’ as a General or Specific Term for Blue Pigments in Renaissance Crafting.

2:00-2:30
Justin Brent. Professor of English, Presbyterian College.
Ars Moriendi and Palliative Community.

2:30-3:00
Carolyn J. Watson. Professor of Art History, Furman University
Medieval Concepts of Beauty in Relation to Medieval Sculptural Styles.

3:00-
Conclusion