Review	Arnau is a really big restaurant. It has 3 or 4 floors. When you walk in you could see Kazakh ornaments on the walls. The waiters are really nice and kind. They always smile at you and they also speak only Kazakh since it is a Kazakh restaurant. The food is delicious! They also have fresh vegetables. They make Kazakh baked bread, and it tastes amazing. All the food that they make is very healthy. It also melts in your mouth. It is really good! I went there only ones, but I really enjoyed it. I remember the time I went there with my family, my cousin, her husband and their daughter, and also with my uncle, aunt and my another cousin. It was 3 years ago, but I still remember what I ordered. It was kazakh food. For example beshbarmak, or boursak which is kazakh bread. You should go to Arnau next time you will visit Astana.
