

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editor's Note	1
David McIntosh
SPECIAL FOCUS:
Surveillance, Policing, & Social Control: Rethinking Classroom Management for Democratic Possibility
Special Focus Introduction	5
Why We Are Done Talking about Classroom Management . . .	11
Kristin Cipollone & Emily Brown Hoffman
Unpolicing Childhood: Cultural Approaches to Anti-Child Disciplinary Violence in the Elementary Setting	27
Marquita D. Foster & Catherine Smith
The Ecosystem of Racial Inequality in Discipline in Early Childhood Education	67
Alexandra Awylward, Rachel Garver, Catherine Kramarczuk Voulgarides, & Christine Hodgson
The Racial Pandemic: Positive Behavior Intervention Support as an Asymptomatic Carrier of Racism	107
Jade Calais & Matthew Green
Compliance and Control: The Hidden Curriculum of Social- Emotional Learning	131
Kristin Cipollone, Emily Brown Hoffman, & Maria B. Sciuchetti
"Breathe and Be Ready to Learn": The Issue with Social-Emotional Learning Programs as Classroom Management	175
Molly E. McManus

Layered Pedagogies of Instruction and Restorative Justice: A Kindergarten Case Study of Community and Belonging209
Erica Steinitz Holyoke

Playing Together: A Call for Multiple Stakeholders to Reduce Exclusionary and Harsh Discipline for Young BICOC with Disabilities251
Saili S. Kulkarni, Sunyoung Kim, & Tunette Powell

Good Trouble, Necessary Trouble: A Call to Create Identity Affirming Spaces for Black Youth to Grow as Agents of Change in Early Childhood and Elementary School Classrooms279
Lauren Mims, Addison Duane, & Cierra Kaler-Jones

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS299

EDITORIAL POLICY303

CALL FOR PAPERS305