

SOUTH ORANGETOWN MIDDLE SCHOOL

Parent Involvement Policy

The South Orangetown Central School district will:

1. Involve parents in the planning, review and improvement of the school's parental involvement policy in an organized, ongoing and timely way.
2. Involve parents in the development of any school-wide program plan.
3. Hold an annual meeting to inform parents of the school's Title I, Part A program. Parents of all children receiving services will be invited. The services will be explained at other meetings held during the day and in the evening.
4. Information to parents will be provided in an understandable format including alternative formats upon the request of parents with disabilities and to the extent possible in a language that parents can understand.
5. Parents of participating students will be provided with information about the Title I, Part A program including the curriculum, the forms of assessments used to measure progress and the proficiency level students are expected to meet.
6. On the request of parents, provide opportunities to meet to formulate suggestions and to participate on decisions about the education of their children.
7. Provide to each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the state assessment in at least math, language arts and reading.
8. Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned to a teacher who is not highly qualified (determined by the NYSDE definition of highly qualified).
