BANNED BOOKS ASSIGNMENT

Next week is Banned Books Week. In light of reading Fahrenheit 451 and in preparation for reading Lord of the Flies (another banned book), you will complete the following assignment. You may work independently or with a partner. If working with a partner, make sure both names are on this assignment sheet that you will turn in with your project.

First you will need to go to the Banned Books Webquest on the Library homepage. You can go straight to the library homepage and find the Banned Books Webquest at the top, or click the direct link from Ms. McMane or Ms. Erickson's webpages. From there, you will do the following:

1. Read the information there and answer the questions below in complete sentences.
2. Choose the book you would like to research and enter it on the Google spreadsheet (link in webquest).
3. In the last five minutes, answer the poll on your teacher's website.
4. Homework: Respond to at least one other person on the poll.

Webquest Questions

1. What does the First Amendment guarantee?
2. For what reasons are most books banned?
3. What other reasons are given for banning books?
4. Explain the following levels of censorship: challenged, banned, expurgated, restricted.
5. For what reason was Fahrenheit 451 expurgated?
6. Why was Lord of the Flies banned?
7. In Pico vs. Island Trees who challenged the books and who protested? What was significant about this decision?

After answering the questions, complete the steps necessary to create a Banned Books Poster or Book Trailer as outlined in the webquest. The completion of this sheet and the display will be counted as a quiz grade. (See rubric below.) You may work with a partner if you wish.

Before turning in this paper, complete the following information on your project:

Title(s) of book(s) you selected: _____

Type of display you created: _____

If it is a video, please enter the link below, and send the link to your teacher AND Ms. Parker-Hennion:
