

Breakin' Rappin' Poppin' and Graffin': A Rockumentary (1985)

When: Saturday, Nov. 18 | Doors open at 2:30, Program runs from 3:00–5:00 pm

Where: Freedom House | 5 Crawford St., Dorchester, Mass. 02121

Massachusetts Rock Against Racism (RAR), in partnership with the Massachusetts Hip-Hop Archive and the Healey Library at UMass Boston, is hosting a reunion of the RAR community at Freedom House in Dorchester, Mass. The event will feature a special screening of “Breakin’ Rappin’ Poppin’ and Graffin’” a 30-minute documentary produced by youth members of RAR in 1985 that documents a legendary b-boy battle at Madison Park in Roxbury, Mass.

After the film, we will have a World Café-style discussion focused on the Rock Against Racism movement, local hip-hop history, and the engagement of youth in arts and culture as a tool for racial justice work.

This event is free, open to the public, and family friendly. Learn more by visiting tinyurl.com/rar-nov18.

This event is co-presented by the Massachusetts Hip-Hop Archive, Freedom House (www.freedomhouse.com), and the Joseph P. Healey Library at UMass Boston, and is supported in part by the UMass President’s Creative Economy Initiatives Fund.

