

Supply Chain Advisory Board Scholarship

Two most qualified applicants each will receive $1,000
To be applied toward winners' tuitions

The "Supply Chain Advisory Board" Scholarship fund will provide (upon availability) $2000 each year to most qualified applicants in supply chain and service management concentration. The goal of this scholarship program is to encourage and reward excellence in studying and engagement in extra curricular activities in supply chain management field.

Eligibility:

- Active undergraduate student at the College of Management
- Declared in SCSM concentration
- Passed (or enrolled this semester in) 2 or more SCSM concentration courses
- Not graduating this semester

To apply submit the following no later than April 25th:

- Application form (available at the College of Management Front Desk)
- An essay (max 500 words) on the following topic.
What about supply chain management has attracted you to this concentration?
- Resume
- Most recent transcript

Submit your application to MSIS@umb.edu

Any questions can be directed to Dr. Foad Mahdavi (foad.mahdavi@umb.edu)