How can we make the learning environment / community / culture more inclusive?

How can we make classroom dynamics / interactions more inclusive?

How can we make course design (including syllabi, curricular choices, assessments) more inclusive?