CALL TO ORDER 9:04 PM
Sam: Hey everyone, if you’re sitting really far please come closer so we can hear you.

MYSTERY ACTIVITY 9:05 PM
Sam: Today’s mystery activity is going to be a little loud, pals, so if you want to step out, if your ears are a little more sensitive you can follow Jules out of the room! Other than that, Happy Spooktober!
Marissa: Seeing as there’s a lot of you and not as many balloons, two people from each hall grab a balloon. If there’s extra you guys can grab more balloons! Once each hall has two balloons you can pick up the extras. Once everybody has a balloon you can pop it, read the question or answer in your balloon, and find the person with your corresponding question or answer. Once you find the answers sit with your partner.

NRHH 9:14 PM
Jackson: Hello everyone, my name is Jackson, I am the NRHH Treasurer, sorry we have not been getting to you guys very much but NRHH is now starting up finally so we will give you constant NRHH updates. For anybody who is not aware of NRHH, we are the National Residence Hall Honorary. We are the sister organization for RHSA and we do tandem programs and work with RHSA to throw amazing programs for you guys and to help out the community. Our two core values are service and recognition. So I just wanted to introduce ourselves to you guys there will be many more updates coming, also Kendall if you’d like to introduce yourself too.
Kendall: Hello I’m the NCC for NRHH!
Jackson: So more from us from now on, thank you guys!
Sam: So Kendall will be giving us weekly updates from NRHH from now on, so hi Kendall!

SUSTAINABILITY 9:15 PM
Jasmine: Hey everyone, I’m Jasmine, for those of you who don’t know me I’m a Sustainability Ambassador under the Office of Campus Sustainability. Basically we have a table out on Thursdays during the Farmer’s Market and we also started tabling recently at Hasbrouck from 12-2 PM and the main goal for this semester is the Water Conservation campaign. Just by a show of hands, how many of you guys know about it already? Okay awesome, cool. That’s better than I expected. So basically in a nutshell the aqueduct that supplies New Paltz with water is being shut down for 10 weeks starting today, October 1st so we’re making a competition among the Residence Halls. Whichever Residence Hall conserves the most water wins a prize that benefits the entire Residence Hall. So as you can see, last year Dubois saved the most water, so they roughly saved 29 Gallons per student on average. Meanwhile, Crispell used the most water. Of course we’re trying to lower those numbers as much as possible and we have little cutouts of water droplets and you’re going to write your name and the way that you conserve water and your Residence Hall and they’ll be posted around the hall. You’ll also get a really cute sticker. I’m just going to pass them around. Also our table at the Farmer’s Market is also looking for people who may want to pick up a minor in environmental studies or major in environmental science if you’re interested. We’re also giving away free water bottles, reusable utensils, and reusable bags. So visit our table!

SENATE 9:17 PM
Tune in next week for a Senate Report.

NCC
Hey everyone, how are y’all doing? So the applications have been sent in, the interviews have been done, and decisions have been made. Can I get a drumroll? The delegates for this year’s Regional Conference are Isabelle Steed and Serena Cruz! So they are representing our school at the Regional Leadership Conference November 2nd-4th at SUNY Geneseo. If you didn’t have a chance to apply or to go, there will be more opportunities next semester for Spring Leadership Conference so don’t forget to apply when those applications come out. Inside your folders are packets and invites to NPLC, or New Paltz Leadership Conference. NPLC is basically a smaller scale version of the Regional Leadership Conference that the delegation is going to at SUNY Geneseo. It’s basically the same concept but it’s here at New Paltz on a smaller scale and the purpose of the conference is to simulate what an actual conference is like, so there will be opening ceremonies, closing ceremonies, programming, interacting with other people, stuff like that. So the point of it is to get you guys prepared, get you to know what conference is like, and to encourage you to apply for future conferences. We want everyone to apply. The date for NPLC is October 21st, it’s a Sunday. It is from 11 AM-8 PM. So conference is pretty much all day and to get prepared for it you guys have some tasks to do. First thing is that every hall will submit a program so we have programs for you to go to during the conference, and along with that you guys can always make clothespins, so what are clothespins? Clothespins are those little clips you hang your clothes on, but you guys are going to decorate them to represent your hall. I have a set of clothespins from NACURH in Arizona, so I’m going to pass these around so you know what clothespins are and give you some ideas about what they look like and how to make them. You arrive to the conference with your clothespins and basically they’re like trading cards so you guys are going to trade them with other halls and schools and it’s a cool way to talk to other schools and meet other people. Any questions about NPLC? You can also come by our office hours and inside the envelopes that say “Do Not Open” and you will find your invitations.

Sam: If you have any questions about NPLC, all of the information you need will be in the packets provided to you.

Pharez: Also it says 11-9 but it’s 11-8!

CCC
Hi, that’s me. So guess what I’m going to ask you guys for. Contact Sheets!
Hi that’s me, so guess what I’m going to ask you for. Contact sheets! So if you are Bevier, Bliss, Collango, Gage, Lenape, Ridgeview, or Scudder please email me your contact sheets at rhsa@hawkmail.newpaltz.edu. We really want to know who all of you great people are. Have a great day!

Historian
So for the Social Media accounts, if you’ve been doing the Social Media Challenges and you’ve placed 1st, 2nd, or 3rd, I’ve been writing back to you: “Congrats you got your hall 1st Place or 2nd Place or 3rd Place!” So most of you know who got what places but I’ll let you know who won this week.

AC Retreat
Marissa: Hey, that’s me! So the AC Retreat is on October 14th from 12-3:00 PM, we’re going to meet at 11:30 AM at the Rt. 32 Parking lot which is the one behind Lefevre and Hasbrouck. It’s a Blacklight Paint and Sip in Kingston and the bus is going to take you there. Sign Ups are due this week, you can come to our office hours, slip them under our door, or give them to us after the meeting. Each hall gets to choose 2 RHSA reps to go. We’re going to try to see if we can take more people but for right now it’s 2 people for each hall so try to decide that fairly.

Monster BUZZ Tie-Dye
Juan: So Monster BUZZ Tie-Dye, you guys have all the posters, it’ll be great, it’s in front of Hasbrouck. You’ll see the shirts there! Be there or be square! It’s on Friday from 7:30-9 PM. Be there early to get shirts because we run out quick.
Sam: That’s true, if you’re interested in doing some tie-dye come through.
Clare: It’s Friday the 19th.

Condom Casino
Jules: That’s me. Hey guys, alright. So as you guys know, Condom Casino is coming! So it’s going to be on October 20th from 7-11 PM in SUB MPR. If you want to volunteer which we would love to have you, you can sign up by emailing us at rhsa@hawkmail.newpaltz.edu. If you’ve already signed up or sent an email to us to sign up we are going to be sending an email back to you guys this week with more information. And if you sign up you get a free t-shirt and GFPs! And if you come you get a whole bunch of condoms and candy. You get to see me dressed as a giant condom!

Halloween in the Halls
Sarah: Hey guys, so on October 28th, from 3pm-5pm, kids from right here in New Paltz are going to come to all of the halls and trick-or-treat at the rooms of people that sign up. You can also choose to do something extra for the kids. For example, a few years ago, Lenape did a balloon pit in the Main Lounge and the kids loved it. Everybody has such a great time and it’s a great experience for the kids. If you guys can start sign ups in your halls that would be great!
Juan: These are like young kids too! They’re like babies but like the ones that can walk.

NPLC
Pharez: Hi, I forgot some information that’s probably pretty important to you guys. So in the packets I handed out are sign up sheets for Banquet and for NPLC, so make sure you hand that in by the due date, October 15th, this way I know how many people are attending and how much food to get because I want to feed you all free food. That’s all.

Programming Committee
Jules: That’s also me. Hi again guys. So this semester I’m starting up something called programming committee, so if there’s ever been a program that you’ve wanted to see put on on a larger scale, if you have any cool ideas, or if you just want more experience putting on bigger programs you can sign up with me and we’re going to start meeting once a week and start planning a big program for the end of the semester. So if you want to sign up with me at the end of the meeting I’ll be taking your emails and send out a doodle poll so we can pick a time for meetings that works for everyone. And this can also go on your co-curricular transcripts so people can see that you’ve done this and that you’ve put on bigger sized programs. So if you have any questions you can come through to me after the meeting.

Sam: Co-Curricular Transcripts? Sounds like a big deal. What is it? It is a resource on my.newpaltz.edu where you can add different experiences you’ve had on campus so say I did CREW, or I’m an RA. When I graduate college I can put that with my Grad School recommendation letter or I can put it in my Grad School Resume so they can see all of the things I did in college, or if I’m applying for a job I can add it to my resume as well. It’s really useful for us as students so that when we graduate we can showcase all of the things that you’ve done for the past 4 years. So you can add this to your co-curricular which is really cool because it shows that you did good stuff.

HALL CONCERNS 9:31 PM
Sam: If there’s something wrong in your building and you have already talked to your RAs and RD about it and nothing has been done, this is your time to tell us. Do I have any hall concerns? Seeing none.

STUDENT CONCERNS FOLLOW-UP 9:32 PM
Sam: Here’s a couple answers I have to past concerns. The College-Shango kitchen is under work and will take a while to fix the oven fully but the RD and SRA both know and it’s being worked on. In regards to the College-Shango Bathroom in Andrea’s wing it is now functioning and working and there is no longer a hole in the ceiling. In regards to wifi, it is being brought up to administration and I’ll have an answer for you in the next few weeks.

STUDENT CONCERNS 9:33 PM
Sam: If you have any general concerns for things going on campus wide, something’s broken, wrong, can be improved, this is your moment to tell us so we can relay the information to administration. However if you have any food concerns, type, quality, price, location, etc. we will not hear them at this point but you can email us at rhsa@hawkmail.newpaltz.edu. Do I have any student concerns? Seeing none.

Collango: Nevermind.

OPEN FLOOR 9:33 PM
If you have any events going on around campus that you want to share you can do it now.
Ridgeview: So Ridgeview is going to have its Hall Gov Hot Seat tomorrow at 8:30 in the Main Lounge so if you want to meet the Hall Gov come through. Also for Be-You-ty Lab we are going to do “Glam Gore” so you can learn to do special effects makeup and all sorts of fun stuff so stay tuned!
Esopus: We are also having a hot seat but it’s going to be on October 18th in the Main Lounge.
Clare: I am a part of the Union Programming Council and we put on programs and stuff for everyone who wants to come. On October 17th at 8 PM or 8:30 PM I'm not sure but there’s going to be a pumpkin carving event so you should come by, carve some pumpkins. It’s going to be in SUB 100S in the Commuter Lounge and there’s going to be beverages and a contest so come hang out, carve some pumpkins, just in time for Halloween.
Thomas/Collango: Hello, it is I, Thomas. So for one I want to thank anyone and everyone who came to my programs, it was a big success. The only thing I have left to advertise right now is an ongoing passive program I’m having in College Shango right now, it’s a Halloween Door Decorating contest so basically throughout the entire month of October leading up to Halloween we are going to be decorating our doors with spooky shenanigans and by Halloween I will judge the door based on Creativity, Spookiness, and if it doesn’t violate health and safety rules. May the best door win!
Esopus: We’re also going to be having ice cream at our hall gov hot seat!
Ridgeview: In case you saw people with nerf blasters today that is because of the Humans Vs. Zombies weeklong. If you are still interested in it and you decide you want to be a part of it, you can come to the SUB 2nd Floor by Shop 24 at 6 PM tomorrow to join the game as a human or a zombie. I highly suggest human because they can tag you and you’ll still have fun.
Bliss: We’re having a Grocery Bingo on October 11th at 8 PM.
Pharez: Do you like stand up comedy? Do you like to laugh? Do you like to take a break from tests and classes and stuff? You guys should stop by TBA’s show that I’m hosting in Capen Hall on Wednesday at 7 PM. It’ll be fun they’re really funny.
Sam: TBA is an improv comedy group they do skits and it’s really funny.
Ridgeview: I’m Cole, I’m an RA here and tomorrow at 9 PM we’re blowing bubbles outside the main lounge so come through!
Sam: On Thursday November 1st in SUB 62/63 at 3:00 PM the College Council will be having a meeting to discuss the Hasbrouck name change forums and will be making a final decision on it. President Christian announced a stance supporting the renaming of the halls but the choice is up to the College Council who have been known to have different stances on the decision. By showing up to the meeting and showing our support we may be able to impact the decision in either way. During the meeting we will only be spectators but I think it would be really powerful if students around campus showed up and illustrated that they care about the issue. This is something many people have fought very hard for and no matter your opinion on the issue you should still attend the meeting to show your support of either option.
Lefeuvre: The president had a program in Lefeuvre this week and he said that RHSA could create a motion either way now and not have to do it then. A student was talking to him and was very passionate about the topic and said that she doesn’t want to wait and she should have a say on the issue and he agreed and said that RHSA could create a motion by ourselves to show that we care about this issue.
Amanda: Students on this campus have a right to organize. I don’t know that RHSA is going to lead that, or that administration is going to but the students are already invested in this. So you can look into that and talk to students in your halls on the issue. I was part of the team doing the research on this topic so just for clarification, President Christian has made a stance in favor of renaming the Hasbrouck Quad Halls however he doesn’t get to make that decision, it’s up to the College Council. Showing up to the meeting is just going to show that you care about the topic
Sam: Basically at this point it’s out of students’ hands and we can’t vote on anything so the best thing that we can do is show up at the meeting and show our support. We’ll even give GFPs if you show up.
Sam: Care Package time is over so pick up your hall’s leftover care packages.

The halls that still need to pick up care packages are:
College Hall
Shango Hall
Ridgeview Hall
Deyo Hall
Scudder Hall
Bliss Hall
Dubois Hall
Gage Hall
Bouton Hall
Esopus Hall
Bevier Hall
Lenape Hall

If you’re one of those halls come to our office hours to pick them up and bring them to your RAs so they can handle it.
Shawn Minter from Ridgeview: Who has the Spirit Stick?
Jules: Don’t forget to see me to sign up for Programming Committee!
Jasmine: Please hand the water droplets back to me before you leave.
Clare: And bring me your folders.
Marissa: This isn’t required but if you’re near a balloon if you could just grab it that’d really help us out.

PASSING OF MOLLY THE MOOSE 9:44 PM
Lenape: We added some nice goggles to Molly for Lenape and we’re giving her to Ridgeview!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK 9:45 PM
“Do not compare your life to others. There’s no comparison between the sun and the moon, they shine when it’s their time.” -Unknown

ADJOURNMENT 9:45 PM
Motion to Adjourn Until Next Meeting: Ridgeview
