Upward Bound Program

The Upward Bound Program at Saint Francis University, Loretto, PA is seeking qualified male and female applicants to fill Tutor Counselor positions for a residential summer program for 70 low income high school students from families where neither parent has a college degree. Tutor Counselors attend a one-week orientation prior to the six-week program, which runs from the middle of June through the end of July. Job responsibilities include tutoring, counseling, and supervising students as well as conducting recreational activities. A $2,200 salary in addition to room and board is provided; this position may also serve as an internship. Candidates should be current college students or recent graduates who have shown a commitment to higher education and are sensitive to the needs of teenagers. Minimum Q.P.A. of 3.0 required. Experience working with adolescents desired. Successful applicants must submit updated Act 34 and 15I Clearances and FBI Fingerprint. Criminal Background Check may be completed after accepting position. A.A./E.O.E.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: MARCH 22ND

“The experience you gain and the relationships you build are priceless.”
