

NAME

Using magazines, create a collage to visualize your personae and the environment in which it exists in connexion to your researched object; refer back to your MATERIAL CULTURE ANALYSIS to develop your personae. Note that the goal of the project is not an imitation of a time period or a literal translation of a certain style but rather an expression of historical accounts through the embodiment of the object.*

environment	personae	environment