

Creative Consultancy Rubric

Areas of Assessment	Exemplary	Proficient	Approaching	Beginning
Note taking	*Took notes in own words	*Took notes, mostly in own words	*Took notes, but mostly copied ideas directly from resources	*Took notes, but all ideas directly copied from resources
Presentation Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Covered topic with appropriate and accurate information *Steps nomads need to follow to setup their civilization is complete and logical *All ideas are based on historical evidence and backed up with specific examples. *Content vocabulary is used correctly throughout. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Covered topic with accurate information * Steps nomads need to follow to setup their civilization is complete, but not logical and/or based on historical evidence *Most ideas are based on historical evidence and backed up with specific examples. *Content vocabulary is included. It is mostly used correctly. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Some information on the topic loosely covered * There are steps for nomads to follow to setup their civilization, but it is incomplete or illogical and not based on historical evidence *A few of the ideas are based on historical evidence and backed up with specific examples *Begins to include content vocabulary. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Information not relevant to the topic * There are no steps for nomads to follow to setup their civilization *Ideas are not based on historical evidence and/or backed up with specific examples *Does not use content vocabulary.
AtL: Communicator Presenting	*You communicated all of your ideas clearly using effective design guidelines.	*You communicated most of your ideas clearly using effective design guidelines.	*You communicated some of your ideas clearly using effective design guidelines.	*You communicated very few of your ideas clearly using effective design guidelines.
AtL: Communicator Nonverbal Communication	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *You made eye contact with your audience throughout the presentation *You faced your audience throughout the presentation *You spoke at a volume that allowed all audience to clearly hear *You spoke clearly, at a pace that allowed your audience to understand all of our ideas *You engaged your audience by using expressive speech and body language throughout the presentation. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *You made eye contact with your audience for most of the presentation *You faced your audience for most of the presentation *You spoke at a volume that allowed all audience to clearly hear most of your ideas *You spoke clearly, at a pace that allowed your audience to understand most of your ideas *You engaged your audience by using expressive speech and body language for most of the presentation. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *You made eye contact with your audience for some of the presentation *You faced your audience for some of the presentation *You spoke at a volume that allowed all audience to clearly hear some of your ideas *You spoke clearly, at a pace that allowed your audience to understand some of your ideas *You engaged your audience by using expressive speech and body language for some of the presentation. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *You did not make eye contact with your audience *You did not face your audience *You spoke at a volume that was too quiet for your audience to hear *You spoke too fast or slow for your audience to understand your ideas *You did not engage your audience by using expressive speech and body language.

Comments: