

Fury The Bat Chapter 1

By Felix

Fury the bat woke up in his cave and found the bathroom. He was only 2 years old, and he still hadn't left the cave yet, and he was determined to. He knew his parents were out to retrieve food, they never were in the cave when he woke up. But he knew they would come back. Yet he had a strange feeling that they weren't coming back, he never thought that, but the hunter was here today.

As Fury made himself a breakfast of meat, he couldn't shake the feeling, not when he went to find his neighbors, or when he went to the bathroom. But then he realized the colony seemed empty, there was no one there. So he went to look for his friend Chester, but horror awaited him.

Right in Chester's room, were Chester's 6 brothers, but none of them were alive, they were all dead. Blood was everywhere, but Chester was nowhere to be seen. But there was a skeleton in the room, and the skeleton had a pack with him! Chester's pack! Chester had been killed, and eaten! What a horrid sight! He and his parents were lucky to have survived! But his parents would be so shocked when they returned.

So he waited for his parents, grieving for Chester, crying, but he knew it wouldn't help him, all he could do was wait, and cry, he was so sad it was like he drowned in a sea of grief. But when he checked the time, it was 9:32 PM, his parents should have been back by now! He knew something was up. And when they still weren't back by 10:00 PM, he said "My parents have gone missing!"
