

Fury The Bat Chapter 4

By Matteo

There he was walking, towards the creature, he was kind of getting scared. He could still see very colorful wings; suddenly the creature jump in front of him and fury jump back shouting. But the creature was not scared of him at all and just said

"Hi"

Fury was not sure what creature it was so it was still scared but then:

"My name is Ben", the creature said happily

"Eh eh my name is fury the bat, he said in a whisper.

" I'm a butter fly I'm a butterfly, he sang.

But the bat did not answer and started walking slowly,

"Wait why are you so sad it's summer!!! He cried out

"I lost my parents, the bat said

"It's ok I can help you find them, but first you have to tell me who you are and how old you are, he told fury

"My name is fury and I am 2 year old, I came outside my cave because first I wanted to ask my neighbors where my parents were but they were all dead so I went long from my cave to find them and there I am meeting you." He told him

"So let's go" the butterfly said

There they went walking on the path.
