

AmericaWill addresses issues that affect students' lives and works toward making a change. AmericaWill connects students of different ages and fields of studies to come together and talk about current issues that matter to the community. AmericaWill seeks to help students recognize the power that they have and use it to make a positive change. AmericaWill members choose a topic to focus on each semester and organize events based on the semesterly topic

Events

Monthly community meetings
Public group discussions throughout the semester
Advocacy training that teaches students how to advocate for social justice
