

About:

Anchors is a group of events which acts as an Orientation program for incoming students of St. Edward's University. It is organized by the Hilltop Welcome Team, a group within the Transitional Experiences Council who develops and schedules the activities that those students can participate in.

Events:

Anchors includes various events (such as the Welcome Barbeque) and lasts for the first two weeks of the first semester.

Contact:

Michelle Mowry at michelmo@stedwards.edu. I have also included their Campus Labs page and also this web page (<https://www.stedwards.edu/orientation/welcome-days-move>) as sources for more information.

ANCHORS

