

B. Hooved Humor magazine is a comedy magazine written and distributed by students for students. They meet weekly to write and publish funny articles that discuss issues students on campus want to address on their website, as well as in print.

Events

Every Spring the magazine has a launch party for their best of the year edition, and they hold fundraisers throughout the year at various times. The editorial staff holds meetings once a week to discuss material and assign projects for publication.

Contact:

www.bhooved.com
beths@stedwards.edu

B. HOOVED

