Purpose

UC Hastings College of the Law (hereinafter called the College) seeks to purchase and implement a self-check system solution in the Law Library as the physical space is transformed.

Context

Founded in 1878 as the “law department” of the University of California, UC Hastings College of the Law was established by the California Legislature with its own Board of Directors. With the exception of the degree-granting authority held by the UC Board of Regents, all other aspects of the College are operated independently under the oversight of the UC Hastings Board of Directors. UC Hastings is the oldest public law school in California and the only stand-alone, public law school in the nation.

UC Hastings’ reputation for academic excellence, its affiliation with the University of California, and its location in San Francisco’s downtown Civic Center are major factors contributing to the overall strength of the institution.

Scope of Work

A. BACKGROUND

1.1 Statement of Purpose

The UC Hastings Law Library is seeking an innovative and accomplished vendor to install, maintain, and warranty patron self-checkout kiosk equipment which shall interface with the library’s Ex Libris Alma integrated library system (ILS). The vendor will also install, maintain and warranty electromagnetic-sensitive security gates which activate recommended CCTV video equipment. The self-check system will be located on the 6th floor of 200 McAllister St., San Francisco, CA, providing security for an entrance having width of 10 linear feet. The self-check system will be scalable, permitting the addition of new self-check stations as demand requires. The library uses an electro-magnetic security strip on circulating materials and a scannable barcode system for circulating materials and patron IDs. There is no plan to convert to RFID.

Responses should include pricing structures for the following:

A. Single, self-check kiosk and security gates compatible with existing CCTV system
B. Single, self-check kiosk, security gates and new or recommended CCTV system

The Library’s goals for this project include these benefits:

1. Enable functional autonomy in provisioning the library’s circulation services;
2. Enhance the library’s security systems to preserve collection integrity;
3. Enhance library branding and the ‘look and feel’ of a state of the art facility.

1.2 Critical Requirements

The vendor of the self-checkout equipment proposed must meet the following critical requirements by the date proposals are due. The vendor should have documentation available for review and be in a position to refer to an operational site or sites to showcase the functionality listed below.

This RFP seeks a system capable of the following:

- Real-time interface to automated library system’s circulation module (Ex Libris Alma)
- Support of SIP 2
- Support of Stunnel, an open source SSL encryption wrapper
- Security gates will detect EM magnetized security strips, sound an alarm and activate the recommended CCTV video system
- Intuitive and user-friendly self-service interface enabling ease of use without staff assistance
- Accessibility consistent with standards in American Disabilities Act (ADA) and ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA)
- Ability to work with Codabar and Code 39 ID and material barcodes
- Ability to provide customized look and feel with Library branding (branding will be provided to the vendor)
1.3 Library Information and Statistics

- Annual checkouts for the Library system-wide are approximately 20,000 items with approximately 150,000 items circulating at the current Central facility.
- The Law Library is connecting to a newly constructed building through a skyway and this project will enable circulation autonomy and collection security.
- A self-service circulation rate of 98% or better is expected.

2 Scope of Work

The Library seeks a self-checkout kiosk equipment solution that includes the hardware, software, installation, staff training, and on-going support and maintenance of all components. Vendors must be able to demonstrate their ability to provide the following:

- Intuitive, customizable and responsive self-checkout stations with barcode scanning and customer account management
- Interface and data exchange via standard SIP2 protocol to the Library’s Ex Libris Alma;
- Customizable screens for Library branding and additional options to match the look and feel of the building
- Security gates that link and trigger video recording through CCTV security cameras

Vendors may exercise discretion in the proposal, but the final product must include these specific attributes. Please include any narrative responses, marketing materials, photos, diagrams or other evidence of the ability to comply with these requirements.

The Library provides the following estimate of equipment and software anticipated to achieve the goals stated in in the Statement of Purpose. Number of units will be determined by budgetary and other factors and maybe increased or reduced between release of RFP and purchase. Optional or additional components, configuration or equipment/software that Vendor may recommend should be included in the proposal with an explanation of the benefits to the Library.
