Tom Baxter UDaB Fund

In recognition of Tom Baxter, UDaB is pleased to offer first-year students accepted to a Habitat for Humanity program the opportunity to receive funding for their program fee from an anonymous UDaB alumnus.

Description

In recognition of Tom Baxter, UDaB is pleased to offer first-year students accepted to a Habitat for Humanity program the opportunity to receive funding for their program fee. Tom Baxter has dedicated his life to helping others through organizations including Appalachian Service Project and Habitat for Humanity amongst others. Through his mentorship and leadership, he has shown what it means to truly be an active citizen in his community. The impact he has had on UDaB participants will live on forever. Tom Baxter epitomizes UDaB’s mission to promote social justice by providing opportunities for students to engage in mutually beneficial service with a vision to develop a community of active citizens.

This fund has been created in Tom Baxter’s name by a UDaB alumnus to provide two UD first-year students the opportunity to participate on a Habitat for Humanity program. Two first-year students, one male and one female, will be selected to receive funding for their program fee. Applicants will be considered based on the strength of their application and financial need. Interested students should review the application criteria and submit the necessary information. Applications should be emailed bluehenbreaks@udel.edu.

Applicant Criteria

- First-year student
- Submitted FAFSA on-file
- Completion of application materials
- Acceptance to a Habitat for Humanity program

Application Materials

Short answer questions (max 200 words each):

1. Why do you wish to participate in a UDaB program?
2. What does “active citizenship” mean to you?

Application Process

1. Complete application materials (10/8 at 11:59pm)
2. Blind review of applications by UDaB alumnus & Senior Leadership
3. Notification of funding (11/15)
4. Acceptance of funding (11/22)