Welcome Reception with guests from around campus

Join us for an evening meet-and-greet with the University's most internationally invested and culturally minded. Join other scholars as well as students as we welcome you into our community.

Your Newark: Community Services and Resources with Deputy City Manager Andrew Haines

From childcare options to great food to social and family events, Newark has it all. Learn what Newark can do for you! Come with questions for this presentation and interactive discussion with Deputy City Manager Andrew Haines. Join us from 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. in Trabant 209/211. Seating is limited to 45, so register at <http://sites.udel.edu/iss/>

Learning the Lingo: Tips for learning and using colloquial English and Idioms

with M. E. Cathcart, Ph. D. Linguistics

It may come as a shock that the English we speak in the US is different from what you may have expected. What gives? Native speakers use idioms frequently, but picking them up is really a walk on the beach! Join us and take your English to the next level. 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. 108 E Main Street, on the 2nd Floor above the IHOP in Room 201.

Managing your Healthcare with the Nurse Managed Health Center

Learn to navigate the complicated world of healthcare. We will discuss your options for healthcare, as well as those for your family members. Insurance topics will be covered briefly. 11:30 a.m. -1:00 p.m. at 108 E. Main Street, above the IHOP.

Group Field Trip: Longwood Gardens

Extravagant, fruit adorned trees towering as high as 18 feet stand throughout the Conservatory. Stroll the Outdoor Gardens and see colorful lights twinkling in more than 75 trees. Watch illuminated fountains dance to merry music and hear the sounds of the season during daily performances. Join us from 1:00 p.m. -7:00 p.m.
