Advisory Committee
The advisory committee should be formed before the 4th semester. The Committee is 4 to 6 members. The Major Advisor must be a core Marine Policy faculty member. Half of the committee must be SMSP faculty members (core or joint). One committee member must be external to SMSP. SMSP encourages members outside the University of Delaware. Work with your Major Advisor to form your committee.

Dissertation Proposal
The Dissertation Proposal should be completed by the 5th semester. Get the “Guidelines for Dissertation Proposal” from your Major Advisor. The proposal must be approved by the entire committee. Your Major Advisor signs on behalf of the entire committee. Your Major Advisor may or may not require an oral defense. You should consider presenting your proposal in the Marine Policy Seminar.

Qualifying Exam and Recommendation for Candidacy
The PhD Qualifying Exam should be completed by the 5th semester. A research proposal is ordinarily required before a student takes the qualifying examination. The exam includes an oral and written part. The exam is prepared and administered by the Advisor in consultation with the Advisory Committee. The Advisor will inform the student 60 days prior to the examination of the areas covered and the format of the exam. The student is informed of success or failure within two weeks of completion. Failure may be of all or part of the written and/or the oral examination. The student is entitled to one re-examination in the event of failure, which must be within six months of the first exam.

After forming your committee, defending your Dissertation Proposal and passing your Qualifying Exam, submit your Recommendation for Candidacy form. The form is found at

Comments/Amendments/Notes
Use this area to document any other amendments or changes to the above study plan. You can use this space to note courses taken beyond the 42 credit hours required, to note leaves you may take (e.g., internships during enrollment), course requirements that may have been waived or other special circumstances that should become part of your record. If you have selected to bypass the MMP for the PhD, use this space to note approvals. In all instances, please date your notes and get faculty signatures (see SMSP Graduate Committee Chair for guidance)
