

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE

DELAWARE
REHABILITATION INSTITUTE

Congratulations to our four 2019 DRI Summer Scholars!

These four students will be working with faculty members in their labs for ten intensive weeks to enhance their research experience here at UD!

A special thank you to the faculty that will be working with these students!

Haley Gill, an Exercise Science undergraduate student will be working with Dr. Jennifer Semrau, Assistant Professor in the department of Kinesiology & Applied Physiology

Ariel Hannum, a Biomedical Engineering undergraduate student will be working with Dr. Curtis Johnson, Assistant Professor in the department of Biomedical Engineering.

Tristan Hoppe a Computer Engineering undergraduate student at Wheaton College, will be working with Dr. Thomas Buchanan, George W. Laird Professor in the departments of Mechanical & Biomedical Engineering and the Director of the Delaware Rehabilitation Institute.

Maria Lilley, a Biomedical Engineering undergraduate student will be working with Dr. Fabrizio Sergi, Assistant Professor in the department of Biomedical Engineering.