Improvisation (improv) is an effective way to strengthen communication and social skills. Improv creates an environment that encourages awareness, listening, supporting, taking risks, and letting go of mistakes. Improv is fun, and there is no script—just like in life!

WHY IMPROVISATION?
- Improvisation (improv) is an effective way to strengthen communication and social skills.
- Improv creates an environment that encourages awareness, listening, supporting, taking risks, and letting go of mistakes.
- Improv is fun, and there is no script—just like in life!

WHO
- Participants: Individuals ages 16 years and older with ASD
- Group leaders: Speech-Language Pathology graduate student clinicians at the University of Delaware

ELIGIBILITY
- Participants must have a medical diagnosis or educational classification of ASD.
- Participants must be 16 years or older.
- Participants must have transportation to and from the workshop.
- NO theater or improv experience is necessary to participate!

HOW TO REGISTER
Contact Kathleen Becker at kebecker@udel.edu for more information and to verify eligibility.

DEADLINE TO REGISTER IS
Friday, December 6, 2019

PLEASE NOTE: Space is limited, and slots will be given on a first-come, first-served basis. There is NO cost to participate!