WOODBURN
The official residence of Delaware’s governor is a stately old Georgian home with a public garden. This garden features plants that help tell stories about Delaware’s agricultural history, including two peach trees since the peach blossom is the state flower.

THE SCOTT ARBORETUM AT SWARTHMORE COLLEGE
Scott Arboretum is an arboretum coterminous with the campus of and operated by Swarthmore College. Today the arboretum contains over 4,000 kinds of ornamental plants, labeled with scientific and common names, and grouped in collections for ready comparison.

MORRIS ARBORETUM
The Morris Arboretum of the University of Pennsylvania is a historic public garden and educational institution. It promotes an understanding of the relationship between plants, people and place through programs that integrate science, art and the humanities.

ZWAANENDAEL PARK & HERB GARDEN
The Park is home to the Zwaanendael Museum and the 18th Century Fisher Martin House, which is also the Lewes Chamber of Commerce and Visitor’s Center. The park also contains the Fisher Martin Herb Garden, an authentic 1700’s Colonial herb garden. It is planted with herbs that were used by Colonial housewives for culinary, medicinal and other uses.
