

A Systematic Community Approach to Aging Issues in Milwaukee's Latinos

When: Monday, April 15, 2019
9:30-10:30am

Where: Golda Meir Library- 4th Floor
Open to Public

* Coffee and refreshments will be provided

Al Castro has over 40 years of experience in social work and management positions. In 2014, UW- Milwaukee recognized Al Castro with the Outstanding Social Work Field Instructor Award.

Presented by: Al Castro MS, CSW
Health Research Program Director
United Community Center
Milwaukee, WI

Seminar objectives:

- Learn how health care professionals are utilized in collaboration to improve the health, wellness and social circumstances of high risk and low-income Latino older adults struggling with health and social disparities.
- Learn ongoing and promising efforts to increase the capacity of the future workforce to meet the increasing need for bilingual/bicultural health and social service professionals.

Team Members:

Yura Lee – Social Welfare
Wonchan Choi – Information Studies
Hyunkyong Oh – Nursing
Zhi Zheng – CEAS
Jinsung Wang – Health Sciences

To register
use QR Code or contact
uwm-act@uwm.edu

Aging Research Collaboration Team Seminar
Sponsored By: UWM Office of Research