

This course registration form is intended for use by those who are not candidates for a degree and wish to take one or more courses in a given semester. Non-degree seeking students may take no more than 9 credits at Widener University. Although no credentials are required while attending as a non-matriculated student, we reserve the right to ask a student to demonstrate competence to take advanced coursework. Please note that without the appropriate background, you take courses at your own risk.
