How does my VoIP phone differ from my legacy phone?

Your VoIP phone offers a multitude of new features that better support the way people communicate today, including caller ID, two-line capability, simultaneous ring to multiple numbers, remote login, and do not disturb. VoIP also provides increased conferencing capabilities and the option to listen to voicemail messages from your Microsoft Outlook email account.