Reception
Following the program, join us in the lobby for a reception.
Join the Danforth Staff Council

Would you like to:

- use your voice to help strengthen lines of communication between the staff and administration?
- hear from university leaders on campuswide issues?
- provide input to senior administration and human resources on decisions that directly impact staff?
- collaborate with colleagues from across the university to represent staff concerns?
- get involved in social and volunteer opportunities?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, then please consider applying to serve on the Danforth Staff Council. Apply for the next cohort today. Applications are being accepted until March 20.

Go to staffcouncil.wustl.edu/newmembers to apply.

If you would like to learn more about the Danforth Staff Council, please visit staffcouncil.wustl.edu or contact a Danforth Staff Council member via our website. All of our members are listed on the back of this program.
Events & Groups

Electronics Recycling and Confidential Paper Shredding
Get documents shredded and recycle old electronics and hard drives at this event. Most recycling is free, though there are select disposal fees for hazardous materials ranging from $10–$25. The Office of Sustainability will also be hosting a bulb swap. Bring working or non-working incandescent light bulbs and swap them for an energy-efficient 60 watt LED bulb. (No CFLs. Limit 10 per person.) Learn more at sustainability.wustl.edu/calendar_event/e-waste-recycling-and-confidential-paper-shredding-event-3/.
8 a.m. to 10:30 a.m., March 31, Danforth Campus outside of Knight and Bauer halls on Snow Way Drive

Your Next Chapter: Conversations on Retirement & Beyond
If you’re ready to retire or thinking about retiring, this brown-bag, peer-led discussion could help. The group meets on the fourth Tuesday of every month, alternating between the Danforth and Medical campuses.

Upcoming sessions
Noon, March 24, Medical Campus, MCC 2057 (HR Training Room)
Noon, April 28, Danforth Campus, DUC 239

Learning & Development Book Club
Interested in an informal discussion about self-improvement techniques? Join the Learning & Development book club. Read a book picked by the group and then gather to discuss. Previous books include Atomic Habits: An Easy & Proven Way to Build Good Habits & Break Bad Ones by James Clear.
To join, email Ashley Gibson at ashley.gibson@wustl.edu

Toastmasters Clubs
Toastmasters is a club for people who want to improve their public speaking. The university has two Toastmasters clubs on the Danforth Campus.
Toast of WU (North and West campuses) meets Tuesdays over lunch toastofwu.toastmastersclubs.org
WUSTL Speaks (Danforth Campus) meets Wednesdays over lunch wustlspeaks.wustl.edu
Other Staff Benefits

Bear Bucks
Staff members can load their campus ID cards with Bear Bucks, an account administered by Washington University. The money can be used on campus and at select off-campus vendors. When used on campus for food and beverage, Bear Bucks can save employees sales tax (exclusions apply). Employees should load their card via HRMS. Go to card.wustl.edu/bear-bucks for more information.

Here are some of the off-campus locations that accept Bear Bucks:

WashU Rides
Want to form a carpool or bikepool to work but aren’t sure how? Check out WashU Rides. There, you can connect with users who have similar schedules and live or commute along the same route. You can indicate if you want to be the driver, rider, or both, and compare your commute to find the most convenient, economical and sustainable options.

Employees who save their commute and select they’re interested in carpooling or bikepooling will be entered in a raffle to win up to $75! There will be numerous winners each semester. Go to parking.wustl.edu/rides for more information.
