Message from Gwendolyn Packnett, President of WSWU

I believe you will agree WSWU filled the past year with fascinating lectures offered by talented University faculty members. As the academic year begins to wind down, we are delighted to focus on two additional upcoming events planned for your pleasure:

Wednesday, March 28 at 10 a.m.

Hamilton and Broadway's Hypermasculine
Song-and-Dance Man

Todd R. Decker, Professor of Music

LOCATION: Knight Hall, Emerson Auditorium

Tuesday, April 10 at 11:30 a.m.

Christine Brewer, Grammy Award-winning American Soprano

Ad?le Starbird Lecture (lecture/performance)

LOCATION: Music Center, 560 Trinity Avenue

This popular talk is named after Ad?le Chomeau Starbird, first dean of Women at Washington University

RSVP by email at Sharon Britt mentioning which lecture you will attend. I hope to see you at both!

With Warm Wishes,

Gwendolyn D. Packnett, Ph.D.

Without Your Support?..

We could not offer

- ? exciting lectures and events throughout the year
- ? opportunities to meet with intelligent and diverse community women
- ? and funding for student-led projects on the University campus
