

NEWSLETTER • May 2019

Message from Kathy Frost, President of WSWU

On a beautiful sunny April morning, WSWU members and guests arrived at Knight Hall for the annual membership meeting. As 10 a.m. approached, attendees entered Emerson Auditorium, nestled into their seats, and broke into a "Happy Birthday" song as Dr. Danforth arrived at his front row seat. During the meeting members, faculty, and staff were delighted with introductions to the Harriet K. Switzer Leadership honorees and the two new Elizabeth Gray Danforth Scholars. Click - scholars photo.

Following a short stretch break, the group settled in their seats once again for "A Conversation with Chancellor Mark S. Wrighton and First Lady Risa Zwerling Wrighton." Everyone enjoyed the humorous responses Mark and Risa provided to each interview question and during the Q&A session that followed.

Click - Record article.

We hope that you enjoyed the events and lectures planned especially for you this past year!

With wishes for a relaxing summer,

RELATED LINKS

[THE WOMEN'S SOCIETY
OF WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY](#)

FACEBOOK

THE RECORD

[WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
NEWSROOM](#)

Newly Elected Board Members

at the April 10th Annual Meeting

(Left to Right) Bola Taiwo-Akande, Ulrike Schlafly, Aster Beyenne, Barbara Wilkinson, Ally Melvin, and Kathy Fulstone

Not pictured: Susan Block and Mary Schoolman

2019-20 Lecture Series.....how you can help

The Education Committee will meet soon to discuss topics and speakers for next year.

We welcome your suggestions! Please send them to sharon_britt@wustl.edu.

A Spring Event for WSWU Members

The Garden Party: Art, Architecture, and Landscape

Tuesday, May 21 in Holmes Lounge of Ridgley Hall

5-5:45 pm – Reception

5:45 – 6:30 – Program

Heather Woolley, the director of the College of Architecture and

Graduate Architecture in the Sam Fox School
Meredith Malone, associate curator

RSVP to sharon_britt@wustl.edu

All are Welcome!

The dues renewal packets will be printed and mailed in mid-summer when the new lecture schedule is set. Please renew early and invite your friends to join!

