

BROWN SCHOOL (SOCIAL WORK AND PUBLIC HEALTH)

The Brown School offers a Master of Social Work (MSW) degree program, a Master of Public Health (MPH) degree program, a Master of Social Work and Public Health (MSW/MPH) dual degree program, a Master of Social Work and Social Policy (MSW/MSP) dual degree program and Ph.D. programs in Social Work and Public Health Sciences.

Below is a listing of courses being offered by Brown School during the Spring 2019 semester. The Brown School reserves the right to cancel or modify any course/s listed in this section of the catalog. For further information, please contact the Brown School Registrar, alishawood@wustl.edu.

Procedure for undergraduate students to apply for enrollment in Brown School MSW Program courses:

Enrollment of students from other Schools or departments requires permission from the student's home school and the Brown School Registrar, alishawood@wustl.edu. Students from other Schools must meet certain criteria in order to enroll in MSW Program courses. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in the student being dropped from MSW Program course/s. Enrollment is not guaranteed, and Brown School students are given priority.

Brown School Program courses are open to upperclass JR and SR students with prior approval from the student's home school and on a case-by-case basis. Students can contact the Brown School Registrar, alishawood@wustl.edu after receiving permission from their home school.

Note: The audit grade option is not available for any Brown School courses. No more than two undergraduate students will be allowed to enroll in any course section.

Procedure for undergraduate students to apply for enrollment in a graduate-level Brown School course at Washington University in St. Louis:

Approval for undergraduates in MSW or MPH courses will be based upon 1) available space after Brown School students have registered and 2) approval of the Brown School Registrar and 3) undergraduate student's advisor and home school. Individual students may take no more than nine total credit hours of graduate-level Brown School courses as undergraduate students.

Enrollment in and successful completion of a graduate-level Brown School courses as an undergraduate student does NOT guarantee an undergraduate student admission into any programs offered by the Brown School at Washington University in St. Louis. If accepted into any program at the Brown School, courses completed as an undergraduate student will not fulfill requirements in a degree seeking program at the Brown School.

Students seeking information about the Brown School Ph.D. Programs should contact phdsw@wustl.edu for Social Work or brown-phdpbs@wustl.edu for Public Health Sciences.