STUDENT ACADEMIC INTEGRITY STATEMENT
The Council of Students of Arts & Sciences and the Faculty of the College of Arts & Sciences, believing student academic integrity and faculty responsibility to be of the highest order of importance, have agreed that the Committee on Academic Integrity shall publish each semester a statement on the nature and possible consequences of academic dishonesty. The guidelines for academic integrity can be found on the university website: https://wustl.edu/about/compliance-policies/academic-policies/undergraduate-student-academic-integrity-policy/

RETKING A COURSE
Students whose performance in a course has not met their expectations are permitted to retake the course, receive a second grade, and have the symbol R, denoting the retake, placed next to the grade for the first attempt in the course. Regulations: While courses initially taken for a letter grade must be retaken for a letter grade, courses initially taken for a (pass/fail) may be retaken for a letter grade, courses initially taken for a letter grade must be retaken for a letter grade. No student may use the retake option to replace a failing course grade received as a sanction for violation of the Academic Integrity Policy.

INCOMPLETE COURSES
Students who, following the last day for withdrawal from courses, experience a medical or personal problem that makes satisfactory completion of coursework difficult or unlikely may request a grade of Incomplete (I) from one or more instructors. Students in such a situation should visit the instructor after class or in office hours, before the final examination or due date for the final paper, to discuss the request, and if the instructor consents, to agree on the work remaining to complete the course.

Failure to submit completed required work by the last day of classes the subsequent semester will result in the I grade automatically changing to an F grade. For spring semester courses, this will be the last day of summer classes, typically mid-August.

How To Read Course Listings
Please note that a course’s specific attribute(s) for Arts & Sciences are designated as part of the listing. For example:

L07 Chem 111A is designated:
A&S IQ: NSM, AN

These abbreviations indicate that for Arts & Sciences students, this course, L07 111A, counts toward the Natural Sciences and Mathematics (NSM) area and fulfills the Applied Numeracy (AN) requirement.

To explore integrated inquiries (IQ Curriculum) for each area, go to https://acadinfo.wustl.edu/CourseListings and click on A&S IQ.

Classroom Assignments and Scheduling
Most students should receive a schedule confirmation email identifying locations of classes shortly before the start of the semester. Building and room information will also be available online at courses.wustl.edu beginning at least one month before the start of classes.
