Who are we?
AISA is a student-led group of Native and non-Native students who are committed to learning, preserving, and sharing the cultures of American Indians, Alaska Natives, and other indigenous communities. We seek to provide a safe and supportive environment for members to explore cultural identity while advocating for diversity within the Brown School at Washington University as well as the larger St. Louis community.

Come to an event!
AISA hosts, co-sponsors, and plans a variety of events throughout the school year. Some of our recent events include:
• Panel & interactive display on Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women
• Indigenous Peoples Day vigil
• Beading workshop
• Sponsorship of the annual WUSTL Pow Wow

Come to a meeting!
Spring 2019 Meeting Dates
All meetings are held in Hillman Hall, Room 200
• September 6
• October 4
• November 8
• December 6

Student Leaders
Co-Chairs:
• Adria Brown (Chickasaw)
• Eric Pinto (Choctaw, Zuni)
• Clara Stenstrom (Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska)
Treasurer:
• Kelley McCall (Cherokee)
Media/Marketing:
• Abaki Beck (Blackfeet)

Faculty Advisors
• Dr. Susan Stiritz
• Kellie Thompson
