The Brown School
American Indian Student Association

AIS@Logo design by Rod K. Arvize
Who are we?

AISA is a student-led group of Native and non-Native students who are committed to learning, preserving, and sharing the cultures of American Indians, Alaska Natives, and other indigenous communities. We seek to provide a safe and supportive environment for members to explore cultural identity while advocating for diversity within the Brown School at Washington University as well as the larger St. Louis community.

Come to an event!

AISA hosts, co-sponsors, and plans a variety of events throughout the school year. Some of our recent events include:

- Panel & interactive display on Steps to Sovereignty
- Indigenous Peoples Day vigil
- Sponsorship of the annual WUSTL Pow Wow

Attend an AISA meeting!

Spring 2022 Meeting Dates:
- February 11th 12:00 pm
- March 11th 12:00 pm
- April 8th 12:00 pm
- May 13th 12:00 pm
