Welcome from the Chancellor

Welcome to Washington University in St. Louis for Parent & Family Weekend 2019! Here on campus the academic year is already well underway, and students have been working diligently on their studies and other activities. Their passion and energy is truly inspiring, and I’m continually grateful for their contributions to making this university such an extraordinary place.

Parent & Family Weekend is a wonderful opportunity to share our vibrant community with you, our families. Our student organizations have been busy planning many exciting and diverse programs and events. Whether you cheer on our student athletes at a home game this weekend, observe a course taught by one of our world-renowned faculty members, attend the Performing Arts Department’s presentation of Legally Blonde at the Edison Theatre, or something else — we hope you’ll have a chance to meet the people and experience the places that make WashU a home away from home for your student.

We are thrilled you have chosen to join us this weekend, and we hope you take advantage of the wide range of activities our campus has to offer. Warm wishes on an exciting and rewarding visit.

Best,

Chancellor Andrew D. Martin

Welcome from the First Year Center

Welcome from the First Year Center

We are thrilled to welcome you to Washington University’s Parent & Family Weekend! We look forward to hosting you on campus and we know your student is excited to see you and show you around their new home. Over the next couple of days, you will get a glimpse into your student’s life at Washington University in St. Louis.

There are a variety of events planned for your time on campus. Feel free to visit a classroom, take one of our tours, learn about the various academic and experiential opportunities available, or hear our outstanding a cappella groups.

To assist you with planning your weekend, we have marked the schedule with the following icons:

★ SIGNATURE EVENT
Signature Events are the highlights of Parent & Family Weekend you want to make sure you catch while you’re on campus.

🔹 EXPLORE ST. LOUIS
Interested in exploring the unique city of St. Louis? We are partnering with RenegadeSTL to provide tours of the city and a few of our favorite areas. Find those by looking for this icon in the schedule.

🎫 TICKETED EVENT

OLD NORTH ST. LOUIS WALKING TOUR
10:00AM - 12:00PM
Outside Mallinckrodt Center
Chocolate malts, flounder houses, and Gothic architecture, oh my! Old North St. Louis has done and seen it all. Highlights of this tour include histories of St. Louis immigration, some of the city’s oldest and still thriving businesses, and exploring what remains of wild city planning ideas.

WOMEN’S LITERARY HISTORY BUS TOUR
10:00AM - 12:00PM
Outside Mallinckrodt Center
Craving a historical look at STL women in literature? This unique tour will take you on a journey through the city’s rich literary history exploring the lives of local women authors throughout history, thriving indie bookstores still making a huge impact, and the city’s impressive collection of libraries.

STUDENT ENTREPRENEURIAL PROGRAM PANEL
10:30AM - 11:30AM
Mallinckrodt Center 128, Skandalaris Center
The Student Entrepreneurial Program (StEP) will present a panel discussion led by representatives from Washington University’s student-run businesses. The discussion will cover a number of topics, including the challenge of balancing school and business responsibilities, the knowledge and skills gained from running a business, and how prospective student-entrepreneurs can get involved with a business of their own. After the presentation, we will open the floor for questions from the audience.

OVERCOMING ACADEMIC CHALLENGES AT WASHU
10:30AM - 11:45AM
Seigle Hall L006
The Learning Center works closely with academic departments and other campus partners to support students in their academic transition to Washington University. It’s not uncommon for first-year students’ academic performance to fall short of their expectations. Discover how The Learning Center and its campus partners help students overcome common academic challenges at Washington University.
EVERYTHING YOU EVER WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT THE CAREER CENTER BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK YOUR STUDENT: ADVICE FOR FAMILIES
10:45AM - 11:45AM
McDonnell Hall 162
1:15PM - 2:15PM
Wrighton Hall 300
Mark Smith, Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs and Dean for Career Services, will share information on services and resources available as well as provide advice for families. This session will repeat on Friday November 1st at 1:15PM.

COMMON READING PROGRAM RECAP AND DISCUSSION FOR PARENTS AND FAMILIES
11:00AM - 12:00PM
Danforth University Center, Goldberg Formal Lounge
This year’s Common Reading selection Hate: Why We Should Resist It with Free Speech, Not Censorship by Nadine Strossen discusses an issue at the heart of many campuses today. As students begin their academic journeys surrounded by individuals with opposing ideas, this book addresses the slippery slope of censorship and why many institutions prioritize maintaining free speech over eliminating hate speech. Discussion of this critical subject during students’ first days at the university has set them up for the many opportunities to engage in meaningful dialogue during their time here. A faculty member who participated in Common Reading Program discussions will provide parents and families with an inside view of what transpired during the discussions with students. Please join in the conversation even if you have not had the opportunity to read the book.

FREE SPEECH AND ART ACTIVISM: A SELF-GUIDED TOUR AND DISPLAY INSPIRED BY THE COMMON READ
11:00AM - 1:00PM
Mildred Lane Kemper Art Museum Galleries and Study Room (Room 104) and Kenneth and Nancy Kranzberg Art & Architecture Library
Continue the discussion around this year’s common read, Hate: Why We Should Resist It with Free Speech, Not Censorship by Nadine Strossen, with artworks from the Kemper Art Museum’s collection and the special exhibition Ai Weiwei: Bare Life.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING & MATERIALS SCIENCE OPEN HOUSE

NOT YOUR PARENT’S LIBRARY
11:15AM - 11:45AM
Olin Library, Level 1, Room 142
Many of today’s students keep the library in their pocket and access it with their cell phone. Journal articles appear at the click of a mouse. Some newspapers from the 1800s are now digitized and can be searched instantaneously. No longer is the library merely a repository for books. Come see the resources and services provided by the Library to today’s Washington University students.

PARENT AND FAMILY WEEKEND TAILGATE
11:30AM - 1:00PM
Outside Sumers Recreation Center
Join with other WashU families, faculty, and staff for a family tailgate. Menu items provided by Pappy’s Smokehouse, a top-rated St. Louis barbeque restaurant. Families should purchase one ticket per family member, but children under 2 years of age may eat for free. Please include your WashU student when purchasing tickets.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY: STARTING A CONVERSATION WITH YOUR COLLEGE STUDENT
11:30AM - 12:30PM
Brown Hall 100
Now is a good time to start a conversation with your student about financial responsibility. For many students, the college experience provides an opportunity to be in charge of their finances for the first time. Conversations about budgeting, building good credit, and spending responsibly are fundamental to establishing sound financial habits.
Saturday, November 2

Amy Kweskin, Vice Chancellor for Finance and Chief Financial Officer, will speak about the important role parents play in helping their student develop financial responsibility. Amy will also be joined by a student who will share their perspective on these important topics.

FOREST PARK WALKING TOUR
11:30AM - 1:30PM
Outside Steinberg Hall
This tour explores WashU’s beloved “front yard,” the city’s favorite bigger-than-Central-Park park. Forest Park offers a fascinating history: from prairie landscapes to the 1904 World’s Fair, from city sleeping grounds to crime-ridden spots, to a rebirth as one of the best parks we’ve ever visited.

Fraternity and Sorority Life at Washington University in St. Louis

Alpha Psi Lambda National, Inc.
Alpha Psi Lambda is a co-ed fraternity that believes in the concept of Familia to create a support network for members, while creating the real world experience of working with all genders. They bring in new members through a process called membership intake. To learn more, visit their Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/APSIWUSTL/.

Interfraternity Council (IFC)
The Interfraternity Council consists of 11 men’s organizations and conducts a recruitment process at the beginning of the fall and spring semesters. For January 2020 recruitment, events begin on January 14, 2020, and end on January 22, 2020. Students must register prior to the beginning of the recruitment process to be eligible to participate. The registration form can be found at https://tinyurl.com/ifcwashu.

National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC)
Also known as the Divine Nine, the National Pan-Hellenic Council community consists of both campus-based and city-wide chapters in St. Louis. Currently, one campus-based chapter and three city-wide chapters are represented on campus. Undergraduate students are able to join these chapters through a process called membership intake, which is facilitated by each individual chapter. To learn more about NPHC, visit their Instagram page at https://www.instagram.com/wu.nphc/.

Women's Panhellenic Association (WPA)
The Women's Panhellenic Association consists of nine women's organizations and conducts its primary recruitment process at the beginning of the spring semester. FASHION DESIGN DEPARTMENT SHOWCASE: GARMENTS IN THE GALLERY
1:30PM - 2:30PM
Ridgley Hall, Holmes Lounge
Join us during this special opportunity to view the student work up-close, on live models and speak with student designers about their creative research and process. This gallery style exhibition of fashion will feature work from the Introduction to Fashion, Patternmaking and Production and Digital Patternmaking.

LGBTQIA OPEN HOUSE
2:00PM - 3:00PM
Danforth University Center 276
Drop by and meet student leaders, faculty, and staff who are a part of and/or support the LGBTQIA community on campus, while getting your questions answered about LGBTQIA campus life and resources. Light refreshments will be served.

CHEROKEE STREET WALKING TOUR
2:00PM - 4:00PM
Outside Steinberg Hall
From a bustling commercial district that welcomed city shoppers hopping right off the streetcar line to a vibrant arts and cultural center, this tour explores the history of one of the greatest streets in St. Louis. On a tour of Cherokee street, you’ll see an old movie theatre, a brewery atop the natural cave system that lies beneath, and lots (and lots!) of local art.

DOWNTOWN ST. LOUIS TOUR WALKING TOUR
2:00PM - 4:00PM
Outside Steinberg Hall
This tour gives a sweeping, entertaining overview of the city’s intricate history and beautiful architecture—all within the core of Downtown. We’ll time travel through St. Louis, moving through the city when it was a colonial fur trading village, through the booming Gilded Age, and on to the misguided urban planning choices of the mid-twentieth century. Oh, and the Arch!

ST. LOUIS CITY BUS TOUR
2:00PM - 4:00PM
Outside Steinberg Hall
St. Louis isn’t a normal city, and this isn’t a normal tour. We’ll take you beyond what you know and love about St. Louis, showing both the grandeur and the dark underbelly that is our fascinating city. From South City to the Downtown, from Fairgrounds Park to Forest Park, you’ll see it all, learning just how perfectly the pieces fit together.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT SHOWCASE
3:00PM - 5:00PM
560 Music Center, E. Desmond Lee Concert Hall
Spend an afternoon enjoying the musical talents of students from all over Washington University. The Music Department Showcase is an exciting event featuring some of the University’s most gifted singers and instrumentalists, as soloists and in small and large ensembles. Free admission. Reception to follow. No reservations or registration required. Parking is available in the garage at the rear of the building, or consider taking the Green Line Shuttle Bus from the Main Campus.

SUMERS RECREATION CENTER OPEN HOUSE
3:00PM - 5:00PM
Sumers Recreation Center
The Sumers Recreation Center is the premier fitness and leisure destination on campus. Join us for an informal open house with a variety of passive and active engagement opportunities:

- 4:00PM: Step HIIT Class
- 5:00PM: Yoga Sculpt Class
- 5:00PM: Facility Tour
- 5:30PM: Cycle Class
- 5:30PM: Zumba Class

*must be at least 18 years of age to use the Center or participate in classes
