2. Chancellor’s Report—Andrew Martin, Chancellor

One important issue facing the campus is COVID-19, affecting many departments. We are helping to communicate on this; what are the steps to take if you come back from China. We have taken precautionary steps, and the situation has created angst; we have a diverse, global campus. We are mindful of the impact of an outbreak if it occurs. For example, how would it impact commencement. How many students would not have family members attend? Would we not have as many students enroll? Every campus is facing this, even though at this point there are no known cases in the US.

On the A&S Dean search, we reactivated the search after we hired the Provost. It is progressing as expected, and we have every reason to expect it to be completed this semester.

On the endowment, the Chancellor indicated he has been writing about it in his blog and has met (twice) with the students interested in a “fossil free” endowment.

Discussion: FSC member engaged in a discussion with questions on: the financial implications of COVID-19; the endowment (can we divest from fossil fuels? A: decisions are not easy).

3. Strategic Plan —Andrew Martin, Chancellor

In terms of the Strategic Plan:
- We have hired Huron, a consulting firm.

4. Chair’s Report – Leila Sadat, Chair

The Chair is communicating with Lori White to have a discussion and working group related to some of the issues raised at the last FSC meeting. We will convene a working group. If interested in being part of it, let Leila know. Another issue raised has been the Faculty Achievement Awards – how to improve attendance and engagement. There will be a small task force engaged on this topic, including John Drabeck.
