

Celebrate Charles Darwin's Birthday

with a free evolution education event for K-12 teachers date: Saturday, February 9, 2019

time: Registration and continental breakfast 8 am Program 8:25 am to 1:00 pm

location: Room 202, Life Sciences Building,
Washington University Danforth Campus

Keynote Speaker: Dr. John Hawks

"New discoveries and insights into our African origins"

Vilas-Borghesi Distinguished Achievement Professor of Anthropology, University of Wisconsin-Madison

- Internationally recognized expert on human evolution and genetics
- Recognized by Nature as one of the top 15 science blogs

Gavriel Matt

"One to many: how did multicellular organisms evolve from single celled organisms?"

Doctoral student, Molecular Genetics and Genomics Program,
Washington University in St. Louis

★ First 25 people to check in will receive a free autographed copy of Hawk's book, Almost Human.

- Grab a fossil from the fossil grab bag
- Attend workshops
- Enter drawings for books and prizes
- Network with other educators and scientists
- Take selfies with Darwin
- Enjoy free lunch and birthday cake!

We will name a new Kirk Teacher Fellow and have a special remembrance of David Kirk

"Neo" skull of Homo naledi from the Lesedi Chamber

Photo: John Hawks CC_BY

 ISP
INSTITUTE FOR SCHOOL PARTNERSHIP
Washington University in St. Louis

Darwin Day 2019 is hosted by the Institute for School Partnership with support from David and Marilyn Kirk