This workshop is funded by The Bayer Fund and hosted by the Center for Plant and Life Sciences, St. Louis Community College.

Once all workshop requirements are fulfilled, teachers will receive:
- $500 stipend
- $500 of classroom supplies/equipment
- Bio-Bench curriculum binder
- option of 3 graduate workshop credits

During the week, teachers sharpen their skills by working in world class laboratories, at the Bio-Research and Development Growth (BRDG) Park, located at the Donald Danforth Plant Science Center Campus.

For more information contact Lee Douangkeomany, Education Outreach Specialist, at (314) 513-4950 or odouangkeomany@stlcc.edu to sign up TODAY!

Lunch will be provided Mon-Thu for the participants.
Bio-Bench Teacher Workshop
A workshop for high school science teachers
July 29-August 2, 2019
9am – 4pm Monday – Thursday
9am – Noon Friday

The Program
Come join us at St. Louis Community College for five fun-filled days of Biotech activities. This one week professional development workshop will include:

- Hands-on learning with industry faculty and our educational specialist
- Tour exciting life science institutions in the St. Louis region

What teachers will receive

- Lunch
- The option of 3 graduate workshop credits (Lindenwood University)
- Instruction, mentoring, and hands-on activities that can be brought back to the classroom
- $500.00 stipend plus $500.00 in lab supplies/equipment. To receive the $500 stipend, attendees must attend the workshop for the entire week and provide a lesson plan based on workshop curriculum to Lee Douangkeomany (odouangkeomany@stlcc.edu).
